HIBIKI'S

- ◆ The next volume of Shin's Magic is going to be huge! Musubi-san and I are working hard on it right now. After that, the Forbidden _____ are still begin. But that seems like a long, long time from now. But I'm already working on the script!

In regards to CDs... ever since last vol. I've been buying more and more. My record is 100 in a single month! I totally blow all my money... The music I listen to doesn't go with Shin's Magic at all, but I hope you don't mind me listing some of it here.

First is FORDRINKJFESAKI! Their music is absolutely beautiful! Their philosophy seems to be "sorrow melody!" and listening to it makes me feel surrounded, like the end is growing near. I'd like to be listening to their song "Five Letter Lie" when the world ends.

WITH RESISTANCE and TAKEN are two other bands that have the same feel. Both bands have broken up, but they have left behind great music that will survive the grave. TAKEN's last song, "Between Two Universes," is pretty... A peaceful ocean waves my chest. Amazing guitar playing, as well. What is it with this music?! You really find music that can touch you so deeply. This isn't nice-nice melody stuff, so I don't recommend it for everyone. But for fans of out-there music, check it out! See you next volume.

- ◆ I'm as happy to see you again. Well, this is the Idol! It's been a long time since volume one. But... (I'm sorry...) volume two is finally here. Thanks to those who stayed as loyal—I really appreciate it. As Musubi-san wrote, the next volume will be very exciting. I know I'm working at a slow pace, but please stick with me! Well, do our best! GO! ♪ YEAH! We're just getting started.

- ◆ I thought that maybe I should write about music, too, but—my tastes are so plain. While I draw, I listen to really popular stuff like Wa, Supernature, Ranji Otaku, etc. Of course, I listen to a lot of Ranji songs as well. Especially when drawing important scenes. The power of music can be amazing. I always have something playing while I work. Oh, and—Musubi-san, you're buying too many CDs!

This is the final published chapter of Hibiki's Magic. While there are other chapters that have been published in magazines, no other bound volumes have been made (as of 9/5/12). I do not have access to these chapters, nor would I be able to translate them.

I hope you enjoyed these releases.
